History in your Backyard?

Tour
Woodbury
Historical Sites

August Miller Barn

Woodbury United Methodist Church

Charles Spangenberg Farmstead

Discover and learn about Woodbury's rich history from the Ice Age through the reign of Chief Little Crow to the arrival of the Europeans. Twelve notable sites will be open from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, September 24. The Woodbury Heritage Society is making this possible in observance of Woodbury's Golden Anniversary as a City. Pick up your Passports and itinerary at the Heritage House (corner of Radio Drive and Lake Road). Tours are self-guided - stop at as many as time allows. Be sure to have your passport stamped at each site. Make your last stop "Passport Control" at Miller Barn and enjoy Passport Rewards including ice cream, cake, beverages and valuable coupons. There's a special prize for families with more than six stamped Passport sites!
