402.1 NONDISCRIMINATION: TITLE IX

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide a fair employment setting for all persons and to comply with federal law Title IX of the 1972 Educational Amendments.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

- A. The school district shall not discriminate against qualified individuals on the basis of sex in regard to job application procedures, hiring, advancement, discharge, compensation, job training, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.
- B. The school district shall not engage in contractual or other arrangements that have the effect of subjecting its qualified applicants or employees to discrimination on the basis of sex. The school district shall not exclude or otherwise deny equal jobs or job benefits to a qualified individual on the basis of sex.
- C. To achieve these ends, the school district will ensure that all personnel procedures and practices will be administered pursuant to this policy. In addition, the school district will periodically review, and as necessary revise, personnel qualifications, standards, policies and procedures.
- D. The Director of Human Resources will carry out all duties under Title IX, including any investigation of any complaint communicated to South Washington County schools alleging noncompliance or alleging any actions which would be prohibited by Title IX of the 1972 Educational Amendments.

III. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE FOR TITLE IX

- ~~A. Any person who has a complaint alleging that the South Washington County Schools are not complying with this policy or alleging any actions prohibited by this policy shall present the complaint in writing along with the reasons for such complaint to the Director of Human Resources or designee.~~
- ~~B. Upon receipt of a complaint, the person designated to handle complaints shall authorize an investigation. This investigation shall be conducted by the Director of Human Resources, other school district officials, or a third party designated by the school district. A determination shall be made as to whether the complaint is substantiated and communicated to the Superintendent of Schools within fifteen (15) school days of receiving the complaint.~~

C. Upon determination that the complaint is substantiated, the school district will take appropriate action based upon the results of the investigation.

D. To the extent permitted by state and federal law, the school district will report the results of the investigation to the complainant.

E. If the complainant is not satisfied with the findings of the investigation, an appeal may be made to one or more of the following offices:
